

- KILPATRICK · HOUSE -

HABS NO GA-233

HABS

GA

123 AUG

16-

- AUGUSTA · GEORGIA -

PHOTOGRAPHS

WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA

District of Georgia

Historic American Buildings Survey

Harold Bush-Brown, District Officer

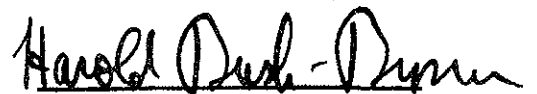

Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, Ga.

KILPATRICK HOUSE

Augusta, Richmond County, Georgia

Owner: Dr. A. J. Kilpatrick.Date of Erection: 1776 - 1802.Present Condition: Excellent. The house has been moved from the city and set up in its original condition as nearly as possible; East and West one-story wings added.Number of Stories: Two and high basement.Materials of Construction: Brick basement, two story frame house above, exterior balustrade wrought iron.Other Existing Records: Measured and drawn as student projects by Nat Holman and Geo. T. Lynch while students at Ga. School of Technology in 1929-32.Additional Data: Many prominent people have resided in this house and LaFayette was a guest on two occasions. The house was moved from Greene St. to Forrest Hills, an outlying residential district, and rebuilt with the same materials and identical design. in 1929.

Central hall has arch separating stair hall at back. Winding stairs with Palladian window above.

HAROLD BUSH-BROWN Dec 1, 1936
DISTRICT OFFICER-HABS

Rev. Dec. 7. '36 TJCW.